THE B.U.S.I.N.E.S.S. OF FAMILY CHILD CARE. (Indiana's Child Care Collection.) Washington, DC: NAEYC, 1998. VHS, 28 min.

Covers the basics of a family child care business: what to do before getting started; using resources; setting up the environment; including your own family; networking; ensuring excellent care; and the stresses and successes you'll experience.

CARING AND LEARNING. Diane Trister Dodge, project director. Washington, DC: Teaching Strategies, Inc., 1991. DVD, 23 min. + user's guide.

Four family child care providers of differing backgrounds and means show how to provide developmentally appropriate programs and high-quality care in warm, loving environments. Caregivers arrange activities for children in nine different areas: blocks, toys, art, cooking, books, dramatic play, sand and water play, music and movement, outdoors.

CARING FOR YOUNG CHILDREN. Megan Laforet, producer. Toronto, Ontario, Canada: Dreams and Realities, 1991. 5 30-minutes DVDs + viewer's guides.

These programs from Canadian television look into the workings of family child care and what it takes to be a successful provider: Family day care, is it for you? / Getting started / Partners in child care / Ages and stages / Helping the care giver. Includes an especially good section on dealing with your own family.

HOW TO START A FAMILY DAY CARE. Produced by Doris Raphael and Douglas M. Weisman. Boston, MA: Day Care Video Programs, 1990. VHS, 48 min. + viewer's guide.

An overview of what is involved in starting and operating a family child care business. Shows a variety of home types and styles of care.

MANY RIGHT WAYS: DESIGNING YOUR HOME CHILD CARE ENVIRONMENT. Enterprise Foundation, 2004. Distributed by Redleaf Press. DVD, 52 min. + handbook (37 p.)

Step-by-step guidance to help child care providers set up their homes for child care.

POSITIVE PRACTICES. Ripon, WI: Video Age Productions, 2002. DVD, 23 min.

Illustrates the components of quality in family child care by taking us inside real child care homes. Three Wisconsin family child care providers show us how they achieve high quality in the areas of environments, curriculum, relationships, business practices, health and safety, accreditation, and leadership development. This video is a good summary of positive practices in family child care.

VIDEO OBSERVATIONS FOR THE FAMILY CHILD CARE ENVIRONMENT RATING SCALE, REVISED EDITION. New York: Teachers College Press, 2007. DVD, 16 min. + video guide & training workbook + instructor's guide.

Vignettes to practice scoring various Family Child Care Rating Scale items. FCCERS-R consists of 38 items selected to provide a comprehensive assessment of family child care programs for children birth to 12. The items are organized in seven categories: space and furnishings, personal care routines, listening and talking, activities, interaction, program structure, and parents and provider.

VILLAGE OF KINDNESS. Produced by Walter (Chip) Donohue and Clark Thompson, Madison Education Extension Programs. Madison, WI: University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Education, 1995. 10 VHS, 29-min. videocassettes.

Enjoyable and instructive examples of high quality family child care from all over Wisconsin.
